1. Objectives and Forms of Collaboration

Universitas Riau and Kun Shan University (Tainan, Taiwan) agree to establish a relationship of general academic cooperation. The purpose of this relationship is to enhance the capacity of both institutions to fulfill their academic missions and objectives. The two institutions may undertake, subject to the regulatory framework and availability of resources of both, initiatives in the following areas:

- Faculty exchange for the purposes of delivering lectures, engaging in research, and participating in ongoing joint projects in various subject areas
- Mutual participation of faculty in conferences, congresses, and symposia sponsored by each institution
- Sharing of research and published materials in disciplines and areas of interest to both institutions
- Joint projects in research and curriculum development
- Assistance with institutional and official networking in the country of each institution and in appropriate international frameworks and organizations
- Student exchanges language acquisition or credit-oriented purpose
- General academic cooperation

2. Terms of the Agreement

Addenda to this document identify specific projects and activities that will be undertaken within this general agreement. Addenda may be developed at any time during the life of the Agreement.

- This Agreement will take effect immediately upon signing by both parties.
- The Agreement, if necessary, may be terminated by either institution upon 180 days advance written notice. When termination occurs, projects or activities in progress at the time shall be allowed to conclude.
- This Agreement is not considered to be a contract creating legal or financial relationships between the parties. Rather, it is designed to facilitate the development and maintenance of a mutually beneficial academic relationship. No financial commitments shall be undertaken by either party without a specific addendum to this general memorandum of understanding.
- This Agreement shall be drawn up in English, and be signed by the representatives of both institutions. Both institutions will retain one copy of each version of the Agreement.

The parties have mutually agreed to work together and in recognition of this, they have executed this agreement.
